Capitol Hill Arts Workshop Hosts 3rd Annual Art & Go Seek Scavenger Hunt

Washington D.C. – The Capitol Hill Arts Workshop (CHAW) will host its 3rd annual Art & Go Seek, a fun scavenger hunt and fundraising event for children and adults, Saturday, April 10, 2010, from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Art & Go Seek is an interactive scavenger hunt that sends teams of two to six people racing around Capitol Hill searching for answers to questions about art, history, and notorious people and places in the neighborhood. Wacky hands-on art challenges will be featured along the course, and the team with the most points at the end of the hunt wins a prize. Proceeds from Art & Go Seek support CHAW's tuition assistance, outreach and education programs.

“We are so excited to once again host this family-friendly community arts event,” said Colleen Jolly, President of CHAW's Board of Directors. “Art & Go Seek provides a wonderful opportunity to learn more about the vibrant Hill neighborhood through an artistic lens, and truly embodies CHAW's mission of building community through the arts.”

Highlights of Art & Go Seek include a light breakfast, the scavenger hunt, and an after-pARTy at CHAW with lunch and entertainment. Entry fees for adults are $25 if registered by March 29th and $35 after March 29th. Young adults, ages 13-18, are $10 per person and children 12 and under are free. There is a special track for families with young children who want to participate. To register for Art & Go Seek, call (202) 547-6839 or email victor@chaw.org.

The Capitol Hill Arts Workshop (CHAW) is a non-profit multi-disciplinary arts education center located on the corner of 7th and G Streets, SE (just two blocks south of Eastern Market). CHAW's mission is to build community through the arts. Annually, about 20,000 people visit CHAW to participate in dance, photography, visual arts, ceramics, theater and music classes, performances, and exhibitions. CHAW provides spaces and programs where the arts flourish at the grass-roots level, where youth and adults can connect through ideas and events, and where lives are transformed. For more information about classes, performances, exhibitions, and programs, visit www.chaw.org. CHAW offers a tuition assistance program. CHAW was a featured charity in the 2006-2007 Catalogue for Philanthropy.
