

FAR EAST ARTS ADVENTURE

Capitol Hill Arts Workshop Spring Break Camp March 29 – April 2, 2010

Explore the art and cultural traditions of the Far East with teaching artists Joanne Seelig and Rochelle Mendoza in this one-of-a-kind Spring Break experience.

CAMP SCHEDULE*

Monday, March 29

- 9:00 Arrival/Welcome
- 9:30 Field Trip: Sackler Gallery "Animals in Asian Art" exhibit
- 12:30 Lunch at CHAW
- 1:00 Activities: Intro to Japan and Kyogen Theatre
 - Furoshkik (Japanese cloth folding).
 - Haiku Poems and Scroll Making
 - Japanese folding and cutting through I Mon-Kiri (family crests).
 - Japanese stories and folk tales
 - Kyongen/Noh theater movement and mask making, set design and origami
- 4:00 Departure

Tuesday, March 30

- 9:00 Arrival/Welcome
- 9:30 Art Activity: Chinese Dragon Mobiles
- 12:30 Lunch at CHAW
- 1:00 Field Trip: Cherry Blossom Festival Performances
- 3:15 Art Activity: Spring eco vases and paper flowers
- 4:00 Departure

Wednesday, March 31

- 9:00 Arrival/Welcome
- 9:20 Field Trip: "Terra Cotta Warriors" – National Geographic Museum (10:00 Tour)
- 12:30 Lunch at CHAW
- 1:00 Activities:
 - Terra Cotta Warrior Monologues
 - Tangrams
 - Shadow Puppetry
 - Improv Games
- 4:00 Departure

Thursday, April 1

- 9:00 Arrival/Welcome
- 9:30 Create Your Own Terra Cotta Soldiers
- 12:30 Lunch at CHAW
- 1:00 Field Trip: Cherry Blossom Festival - Tour
- 3:00 Activities: Springtime Celebration
- 4:00 Departure

Friday, April 2

- 9:00 Arrival/Welcome
- 9:30 Create Your Own Terra Cotta Soldiers
- 12:30 Lunch at CHAW
- 1:00 Field Trip: Cherry Blossom Festival Performances
- 4:00 Departure

Activities are subject to change without notice.*

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Eligibility: Spring break camp is open to students ages five (with kindergarten or pre-k equivalent experience) to twelve. Camp is limited to 12 students.

Cost: $400 - includes Metrorail fare and event tickets. Lunch and snack are NOT provided.

To Register: Call 202-547-6839.