SUMMER ARTS ADVENTURE CAMP 2018 - Policies Statement

Young Artist Pledge

I respect myself and others. I honor my artwork and cheer on the creativity in others. I listen, I share and I care for the PEOPLE and SPACE around me. I am creative and I am CHAWSOME!

CHAWsome artists:

- Follow directions at all times
- Use kind words and gentle language
- Keep their bodies to themselves

- Follow all safety rules and regulations

Medical Notification

Please inform the Education Coordinator of any medical or behavioral issues that the staff and faculty need to support the health and well being of your child, including any specific emergency instructions.

Behavior Consequences for Students

CHAW implements a "three strike" rule if behavioral issues with a student arise.

1. Student receives a verbal warning from Camp Staff.
2. Student speaks with the Education Coordinator about behavior expectations and makes a plan for meeting them before returning to class.
3. Parents are notified of by phone or at pick up to help plan a corrective course of action.

Van safety infractions such as removing a seatbelt or distracting the drive while in transit will result in a one day suspension. Major or repeated behavioral problems such as verbal or physical abuse are grounds for immediate suspension or removal from the program.

CHAW is a nut free zone due to the allergies and special needs of many of our students, teachers and staff. Please follow our "No Nuts" policy (no peanuts or tree nuts) when preparing a lunch or snack for your children at CHAW.
